WE POINT WITH PRIDE

to our showing of new wall and ceiling papers. They are so unique and artistic in design and so well bodied that they are ideal from both an artistic and economical standpoint. If you plan to repaper your home or even a single room you certainly should see these papers before making a choice.

SAFETY

Fear of the filthy, diseased Rat is instinctive. Yet other Rat Exterminators containing poison are just as deadly as the Rat.

Kills your Rats and Mice and avoids the danger of poison too.

Positively harmless
to humans

Sanitary also because it dries up and mummifies Rats and Mice without odor.

In 25c, 50c and $1.00 packages at Seed, Drug, Hardware and General Stores.

Valuable booklet, "How to Kill Rats and Mice," in every package.

CHARMING ENTERTAINMENT.

Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.
J. Worthington on East Fourth street, was the scene of a brilliant social gathering, when Mrs. Worthington and Mrs. C. M. Elister received a number of their friends in honor of their sister, Miss Hannan, who has just returned from a three years' stay in the Philippines. The house was artistically decorated with spring blossoms and many articles of interest and value collected by Miss Hannan during her sojourn abroad.

On entering the guests were received by Mrs. Worthington, Mrs.
Phister and the guest-of-honor, assisted by Mrs. George Ballou, Mrs.
LeWright Browning, Mrs. W. W. Wy-koff and Mrs. Anna Ball.

Delicious punch was served in the hall, presided over by Mrs. William Rees and Mrs. Morris Kirk, while little Misses Leslie Worthington and Elizabeth Harbour flitted through the rooms.

After chatting for a while the guests were asked into the dining room, which was a bower of beauty in its decorations of tulips and hyacinths, and where a delightful luncheon was served, with Misses Mary Dewees Payntz and Frances Dixon Ball in charge. With its mingling of soft lights, music, flowers and beautifully gowned women, this first reception of the spring season was one long to be remembered.

Kindergarten closed.

The Lewis kindergarten, which has been so successfully conducted during the past winter by its principal, Miss Annabelle Lewis, closed for the session last Friday. This kindergarten is a new school in Mayville, having been started last fall. The kindergarten will be reopened next fall.
